Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) says it has registered more than 6,500 families now living in Missouri for its various disaster relief programs. 5,575 of the families indicated they suffered damage from Hurricane Katrina while 1,137 families registered because of Hurricane Rita.

The Remington Service Center in Springfield will be closed Friday-Sunday, but will reopen on Monday for victims of both storms to register for assistance with various local, state, and volunteer agencies.

The Missouri Donation Hotline (800-841-8891) continues to take calls from anyone wishing to volunteer or donate to victims of both Hurricane Rita and Hurricane Katrina.

EMAC Support:

Missouri support under the Emergency Management Assistance Compact (EMAC) for the two storms includes the following:

- The SEMA employee who has been in Baton Rouge, LA since late September is expected to return early next week. He has been assisting in the state's emergency operations center.
- Two SEMA personnel are now working in Mississippi, assisting the state with disaster mitigation and floodplain management activities. They are expected to be on the ground through the end of next week. Two additional SEMA staffers will be dispatched later this month.
- Members from several fire departments in Region C (St Louis area) continue their work in Gulfport, MS with 18 personnel and 8 water tankers. They are assisting the local fire department with firefighting activities.

SEMA has received no requests for state assistance within the last 24 hours.

Points of Contact:

SEMA can be reached during normal business hours (7:30am-4:30pm) at 573-526-9100. After hours calls can be made to the duty officer hotline at 573-751-2748.

This will be the final Situation Report concerning these events.
